Text: Discrete Mathematics, 7th edition, by Richard Johnsonbaugh, Pearson Prentice Hall.

Prerequisites: Math 2554 with a grade of C or better.

Goals: You will learn the language and tools of set theory, combinatorics, graph theory and logic. By the conclusion of the semester you will be able to construct elementary mathematical arguments involving induction, contradiction and counting. We will cover the majority of Chapters 1 – 9 of the text.

Academic Honesty Policy: As a core part of its mission, the University of Arkansas provides students with the opportunity to further their educational goals through programs of study and research in an environment that promotes freedom of inquiry and academic responsibility. Accomplishing this mission is only possible when intellectual honesty and individual integrity prevail. Each University of Arkansas student is required to be familiar with and abide by the University's "Academic Integrity Policy" which may be found at <http://honesty.uark.edu>. Students with questions about how these policies apply to a particular course or assignment should immediately contact their instructor.

Class Conduct: Attendance is expected. Using a mobile device inappropriately counts as an absence.

Exams/Quizzes: There will be three in class exams (Monday, September 18, Monday, October 9 and Wednesday, November 8) and a final exam on Monday, December 11 at 10:15 AM – 12:15 PM. There will be weekly take-home quizzes. You must be present in class to receive a quiz. The lowest quiz grade will be dropped.

A make-up for an exam will not be given without a compelling reason and my prior consent. You must inform me before the exam if you are to miss it due to illness, University related activity or religious holiday. You must inform me either through a phone call or in person. A make-up for a quiz will only be allowed for justifiable and documented absences. This is a very strict policy.

Homework: Homework is assigned daily but will not be collected. It is expected that you have attempted each assigned problem. Homework assignments are very important to the learning process. Math is not a spectator sport, the only way to get better is to practice.

Calculators: Calculators are not permitted on any quiz or exam.
